Set Theme For Float Parade

General theme for the homecoming floats—decided last night at the Student Council meeting will be "Song Titles."

The Council voted to accept the theme after about seven suggested topics for interpretation by float builders had been discussed.

One qualification the Council made was that the songs used be ones with lyrics.

THE HOMECOMING parade is scheduled for Thursday night, Oct. 20, the night before the Homecoming football game with Oklahoma A. & M.

Route of the parade will be the same as last year's. Starting at Outer Drive the parade will proceed down Livernois to McNichols, turn left, and terminate at the bonfire at the North end of the stadium.

What positions an organization occupies in the parade will not depend on what time a float gets to the starting place.

Rather, position in the parade will be decided by the order in which the organization submits its application to the dean of men's office.

DEADLINE for the applications will be Oct. 11.

Application blanks are being printed on page 2 in this issue of The Varsity News, and can be turned in as soon as they are filled out.

Any organization on campus can compete in the float contest. However, a float must be built by only one organization, under the penalty of disqualification.

The floats must be built not more than 9 feet wide or 13 feet high. Trailers they are built on must be flat bed trailers.

The floats should be protected against fire and should be strong enough to withstand pulling pressure during the parade.

The Council, in determining the theme, considered the suggestions under a remainder by Council-Union president Marty Hull that "This theme is important because it is experimental and affects many students. We shouldn't let ourselves be carried away by one idea, on the basis that the idea Alcide P. Chauvin is shown removing securities from the vault of the Detroit Wabeek Bank and Trust Company. These securities make up part of more than $1,000,000 willed to the University by Mrs. Adele Campau-Thompson.

Plans for Funds Undetermined

BY BILL MARTIN

A million dollars, left to the University 25 years ago in the will of Mrs. Adele Campau Thompson, is now in legal processing prior to being given to the University.

Originally probated shortly after the death of Mrs. Campau Thompson, the will named the University along with three other Detroit Catholic institutions to share equally in the estate.

EXACT present value of the estate will not be known until attorneys have determined the value of securities included in the estate.

Estimated value of the estate in total is four million dollars.

The other Detroit Catholic institutions are the Sacred Heart Academy, Grosse Pointe Farms; St. Vincent Orphanage, Farmington, and the Little Sisters of the Poor, who operate the Bertha M. Fisher home for the aged on Southfield.

MRS. THOMPSON'S will stipulated that the trustees, the Detroit Trust Company, set up a trust fund and from the income make payments for the support of Mrs. Thompson's adopted daughter and her husband.

The remainder of the income was to be divided equally among the four institutions named in the will.

Alcide P. Chauvin, officer of the trust company, which is now the Detroit Wabeek Bank & Trust Co., estimated the institutions involved have each been receiving about $27,500 annually from the remainder of the income.

* * *

Mrs. Thompson's adopted daughter, Mrs. Hobart Springle, died a widow in Oka, Que., Sept. 17. She was 67.

Upon her death, the money is being divided equally among the institutions, according to a provision of the will.

But before that can be done, the value of the securities must be determined. Once worth $4,500,000, the amount is believed to have declined because of the falling stock market.

Mrs. Campau Thompson was a descendant of original French settlers of Detroit, several of whom were with Cadillac in 1701 when he came from France and founded Detroit.

The Very Rev. Celestin J. Steiner, S.J., president, said he was unable to announce any plans for the money until the exact amount was known and he had a chance to confer with the Jesuit Board of Trustees and the Lay Board of Advisors.

THE LITTLE SISTERS of the Poor said they have a new combination classroom and dormitory scheduled. No plans were announced by the other groups.

IFC, Tower 'Feud' Creates Understanding

"We have no feud with the fraternities. We love fraternities. There's no feud."

These were words spoken last night by the Rev. Robert Hinks, S.J., Tower moderator, as he and Dorean Hurley, Tower editor, faced the Student Council and members of the Inter-Fraternity Council (IFC).

AT THEIR meeting Sunday, the IFC, which represents the 15 fraternities on campus, had objected to the yearbook's plan to eliminate "thumbnail," or individual, pictures from their fraternity-sorority section.

But at the end of the discussion, Bud Belanger, president of the IFC, spoke softly and to the effect that it wasn't so much a question of authority or jurisdiction between the Tower and the Student Council or IFC, but rather it was a matter of the two knowing the wishes of the other.

dean of men, adjourned to the lobby outside the Library conference room.

There, they talked quietly for a few minutes about reaching a compromise. Belanger then invited Miss Hurley to the next Inter-Fraternity meeting to get information about fraternities' activities, which the Tower plans to feature instead of the thumbnail pictures.

AND, IN RETURN, she could tell the fraternities what the Tower needed in the way of co-operation from them.

During the course of the discussion before the Student Council, Miss Hurley had pointed out that, while Greek letter organizations might want thumbnail pictures in the Tower, only about 50 per cent of the members showed up to have them taken.

Fr. Hinks also pointed out that he and Miss Hurley were not at the meeting to defend the policies of the Tower staff, but as a courtesy to the Student Council.

Army ROTC Adds Two to Its Staff

Two new men have joined the staff of the University's Army ROTC unit, one an officer, the other a non-com. First Lt. Charles E. Armstrong, a native of Wichita, Kan., arrived at U-D after a tour of duty in Germany. Armstrong is a graduate of Oklahoma A & M, where he received his commission through the ROTC.

He earned a B.S. in personnel administration before being stationed with the 370th Armored Infantry Battalion in Europe. Armstrong is married and has two children.

M/Sgt. Aloysius Mishaga, of Cleveland, has been with the Army 13 years. He served in Iceland and Europe throughout World War II.

Mishaga holds the Silver Star, Bronze Star with two oak leaf clusters and a Purple Heart. He is married and has two children.

Roundtable to Open With World Peace Talk

German Attache Is Sunday's Guest; Schneidewind Will Conduct Series

The reality of world peace will be reviewed on "U. of D. Roundtable" to open the program's fifth season of telecasting over WJBK-TV.

"Roundtable," Detroit's oldest television discussion program, moves to a new time from 1 to 1:30 p.m.

HENRY SCHNEIDEWIND, assistant professor of speech, will moderate the opening series of programs. Prof. Schneidewind also is heard on a U-D radio program at 8:30 p.m. Sundays over WJBK,

"Answer Guaranteed."

He was one of Detroit's first disc jockeys, an experience dating back to the thirties when he was a staff announcer for radio station WMBC.

Guest panelists on Sunday's "Roundtable" will include Heinz Kruse, commercial attache of the German Consulate in Detroit; Dr. Bernard Landuyt, chairman of the U.D. economics department; and Dr. Tibor Payzs, chairman of the political science department.

"THE PROGRAM," explained Dr. Landuyt, chairman of the "Roundtable" committee, "is designed to bring significant problems to the attention of the community and to discuss the events on a university level."

"Although we regularly feature members of the faculty, we also schedule, whenever possible, men and women from the community who have special knowledge of the questions under discussion."

The five years of telecasting, "U. of D. Roundtable" panelists have discussed everything from death to taxes, from politics to science, and have even subjected their own media, television to a close examination.

"ROUNDTABLE" was born in 1951 when the Very Rev. Celestin J. Steiner, S.J., president, was asked by the general manager of WJBK-TV, then in its infancy, "Why don't you do a show on our station?"

FR. STEINER replied that there was no reason he could think of, and penciled on the back of an envelope the blueprint of "U. of D. Roundtable."

Except for summer vacations the program has been telecast over WJBK-TV ever since.

AFROTC Guest Officers

The Air Force ROTC wing and the championship drill teams began organizing last week. Cadet Colonel Richard F. Abel is the new wing commander.

Cadet Lt. Col. August Exner is the deputy wing commander. Other appointments were: Cadet Lt. Col. Chester Kordel, chief of staff; Cadet Lt. Col. Gerald Farrell, deputy for operations and training; Cadet Major William Stiles, asst. deputy for operations and training; Cadet Lt. Col. Russell Manney, deputy for personnel and material; Cadet Lt. Col. Earl Clark, air inspector; Cadet Major Walter Burger, special projects; and Cadet Major Robert Jewell, wing adjutant.

Cadet Majors Lee G. Lair, Karl Schumaker, Stephen T. Gomola, Constantine Carson, Ronald F. Birou, Richard T. Myers, Arthur D. Manning, and Benedict J. Passalacqua were named squadron commanders.

Working engineers of P & W A. waiting for classes to begin at R.P.I.'s new graduate center. Courses include Aeronautical Engineering, Physics, Mathematics, Nuclear Technology, Management Training.

Here's something unique in education.

Near the Pratt & Whitney Aircraft plant in East Hartford, Conn., a full-fledged graduate center was established this fall by Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Located 115 miles from R.P.I.'s home campus in upper New York State, the new graduate facilities will enable working engineers from Pratt & Whitney Aircraft and other companies in the Hartford area to continue their studies. Without interrupting normal employment, it will be possible for students to obtain advanced degrees in specialized fields from the nation's oldest engineering college.

Designed to raise the level of knowledge and to broaden the base from which advanced research can be approached, this entire program will simultaneously lead enrolled engineers to greater achievement in their careers.

'Showtime' Eyes Talent of Students

With its expansion this Sunday to an hour program, "U of D Showtime" opened its microphones to student writers and talent.

"Showtime" is heard Sundays from 6:05 to 7 p.m. over WJBK in Detroit, and 11:30 p.m. over WPON in Pontiac.

HOSTED BY Richard Burgwin, assistant professor of theater, the program features the chorus, the band, recordings, interviews with show business celebrities and, from time to time, dramatic productions.

"We are interested in expanding our dramatic segments of the show," said W. T. Rabe, director. "We'd like to program more vignettes, short scenes, comedy sequences and that sort of thing."

"We have actors and actresses to do the work, but we need material for them to work with," Rabe added.

"We can also program student entertainers, musicians or vocalists," Rabe said. "We'd particularly like to find a ballad singer who can play the guitar."

STUDENTS may apply for further details at the public information office, first floor, east wing of the Engineering building.

Sunday's "Showtime" features the U-D Band's "Musical Saga of Davey Crockett," a song by the chorus, the third winner in the U-D - Detroit Times teen age disc jockey talent hunt and a dramatic re-creation of the night George M. Cohan shopped the show with "I'm a Yankee Doodle Dandy."

U-D to Present 3 Radio Shows This Weekend

The University will be featured on three radio programs this weekend.

Dr. Joseph A. Fihn, associate professor of German, today will discuss the conflict of values in the writings of Gertrud von le Fort, a contemporary German author, on U-D Radio Magazine. The show is broadcast at 3 p.m. over WJLB.

"U-D Showtime," broadcast over WJBK at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, will present another winner in the Detroit Times-U-D teen-age disc jockey contest.

The University also will be featured on "Answer Guaranteed," broadcast over station WJBK at 9:30 Sunday.

A panel of U-D professors will answer questions sent in by listeners.

Queen Entries Due by Oct. 6

Names of Homecoming Queen candidates must be submitted to the Dean of Men's office by sponsoring organizations no later than 5 p.m. Oct. 6.

Bob Wiseman, Homecoming publicity chairman, emphasizes that no candidates will be accepted after this date.

Candidates must have pictures taken either Oct. 6 or 7 by Ed Haun, official Homecoming photographer.

He can be reached in the TV studio office, third floor of the Library, from 6 to 8 p.m. both days.

No candidate will be allowed to run if pictures have not been taken on these dates.

Chapel Slates Daily Confessions

Father Arthur E. Lovely, S. J., Theology department chairman, urges all students to take advantage of the student chapel, now open for daily confessions.

A complete listing of all available times and names of the confessors is posted on the chapel door.

If a student wishes a regular confessor, he is urged to take advantage of this service. The chapel is located in the Chemistry basement.

U-D, MSU Grid Advocate Celebrates His 50th Birthday

It is more blessed to give than to receive. This is a sentiment Ben Levinson, Detroit civic leader, materially expressed Wednesday when he gave the University $1,000.

At a party to celebrate his 50th birthday, Levinson presented checks for $1,000 to Fr. Steiner; Dr. Gordon Scott, Wayne Medical School Dean; and Rabbi Leon Fram of Temple Israel for their respective institutions.

PRESIDENT of the Michigan Mortgage Corp., Levinson originated the idea of having U-D meet Michigan State U. in football.

He carried this belief to the Michigan State legislators, petitioning them to request that MSU add U-D to its schedule.

"Mr. Levinson has always had the interest of the University at heart and has worked a great deal in helping to raise funds for the future," commented Fr. Steiner.

LEVINSON'S birthday was celebrated in the usual fashion by the 250 persons who attended the party at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

Wednesday was declared "Ben Levinson Day in Detroit" by Mayor Cobo and an American flag was presented him by the state Amvets for which Levinson is housing advisor.

Night School Sets Attendance Mark

The University Night and Graduate Schools reached their attendance peaks this year as an overflow of students enrolled for the fall semester.

The 1,500 margin broke previous records for night students at the University as a complete nine year curriculum leading to a degree in engineering was introduced in September.

In the graduate school 205 new students were added to last years total of 644.

Kandoth J. Simow, Teresa Cleetus and Reverend Paul Panickauede, students from India, are among the new arrivals.

Column Introduces New Instructors

In an effort to acquaint the student body with the many new instructors on the campus this semester the VARSITY NEWS is running a "Meet the Faculty" column. This week we will take a look at the new Commerce and Finance professors.

In the Economics Department new instructors include Dr. Marjorie Smith Goodman. Dr. Goodman received her BS at Bowling Green State University, an MA at Syracuse, and PhD. at Northwestern.

She is a member of Sigma XI, Sigma Delta Epsilon, and the Association of American Geographers. Besides being the author of several publications, Dr. Goodman worked for the Federal Government and was the head of the Map section for the Detroit Metropolitan area traffic study prior to her appointment to the U. of D. faculty. Another new instructor in the Economics Department is Dr. Farnell who did all his undergraduate work in Munich, Germany. He received his MBA from New York University. Dr. Farnell is a candidate for his PhD.

in October, 1955. Prior to coming to U. of D., Dr. Farnell was associated with the U. N. and the Chrysler Corporation.

Dr. Betty Le Breton, also in the Economics Department received her BS in education from Illinois State Normal and her MA and PhD. from the University of Illinois. Dr. Le Breton is a member of the American Economics Association.

Mr. Robert Smock, another addition of the Economics Department received his BA from Adrian and his MA from Wayne. Mr. Smock is a member of the American Sociological Society, National Association of Social Workers, and Alpha Kappa Delta Fraternity.

In the Accounting Department, there are two new instructors, Mr. William L. Eaton and Mr. Delbert E. Williamson. Mr. Eaton received his BA from Harvard. He is a member of the National Association of Cost Accountants.

On the other hand Mr. Williamson obtained his BA from San Jose State University and his MBA from Stanford University. Mr. Williamson is a veteran of both World War II and the Korean conflict.

Mr. Elwood Laymen is the only addition to the Secretarial Science Dept. Mr. Laymen received his BS from the university of West Virginia and his MA from Columbia University. Mr. Laymen is a member of the Delta Pi Epsilon, Kappa Delta Pi and Phi Alpha Kappa fraternities.

That takes care of the Commerce and Finance professors. Next week the Varsity News will introduce the new Arts and Science professors in the University of Detroit Family.

Floats to Have General Theme

THE COUNCIL spent about 45 minutes on the matter.

They had decided to have a general theme at a meeting Monday night as a result of favorable opinions expressed by the organizations.

The opinions had been forwarded to the Council by the organizations in response to a letter from the Council suggesting it.

The Student Council voted to exclude first semester freshmen coeds from the Homecoming Queen contest Sept. 12.

Judges in the Float contest have not yet been appointed.

Floats will be judged by those appointed on these criteria and weights: originality, 40 per cent; beauty, 40 per cent, and construction, 20 per cent.

Peasants, Arise And Revolt

FRESHMAN!! The time has come to throw off your shackles and declare your independence and freedom. Here is your chance to prove your worth; that you are not, as the upperclassmen would have you believe, something to be scorned, something to be stepped upon.

Tomorrow, Saturday, October 1, 1955, can go down in history as the day that the Freshmen proved to the world that they are to be respected. Tomorrow is your day. It is the day on which you can literally push the faces of the upperclassmen in the mud.

After an absence of three years Freshman Liberation Day has returned. And what a comeback it's going to be.

Highlighting the day's activities will be the pushball game in which one side tries to push a six-foot diameter ball across the opponents goal line. Think of the pleasure you can receive from rolling such a large, heavy ball over the prone body of some upperclassman, and how you can laugh derisively in his face.

Another activity planned for the afternoon is a tug-of-war using a rope donated by the Police Department, on a field that will have been watered down by the Fire Department. The water has been thought of as a safety measure—as in the past upperclassmen have known to crack their heads on the hard ground—having nothing inside to cushion the impact.

Starting at 1:45 and lasting until 4 p.m., the day should prove to be full of thrills and excitement, especially for the Frosh. Cokes will be served by members of the Women's League sometime during the activities.

Pushball, an unusual and rarely played game here in the East, was originally played on horseback out west. Now we realize that you would much rather have a horse step on some poor unfortunate senior or junior but you will have to reconcile yourself to dirtying your own feet in the mud.

The pushball to be used has been donated by the Central Michigan Teachers College, Mt. Pleasant.

Of course, there is another aspect to the Freshman Liberation Day. This is the time for the Freshmen to meet those who have made U of D their home for the past few years. Here is your chance to meet these upperclassmen both on the field of battle and on a social level, in an atmosphere of friendship and brotherhood.

It will be interesting to note just how many upperclassmen will show up for this affair. It certainly offers them the opportunity to play around in the mud, something which they have not been able to do since they were kids and, I'll bet, would like to do again.

SO!! Come one, come all. Bring the oddest of clothes and plan to have a good time. Your class card is all you need for admittance. The young ladies are invited to cheer for their favorites.

Union Board Gets Turnover

The Student Union announces three changes in its Board of Governors.

Bill Byrne, who resigned as Treasurer, is now Commerce Day school representative. Bob Wiserman succeeded Byrne.

Arts night school representative is Stan Snyder. Previously, he was the school's day representative. Bob Shanahan replaced him.

Tom Cline was chosen Law school representative.

Art Series

Movigoers will be offered something new in the way of films this season as the Detroit Institute of Arts presents its new series, The Film as an Art.

Outstanding new films as well as revival of old ones will be presented. The series will begin October 4.

Both American and foreign productions in art, documentary and experimental work will be highlighted during the year.

The program will begin with Moonrise, October 4. Featuring Dane Clark, Gail Russell and Ethel Barrymore, Moonrise has been acclaimed as an outstanding drama. The second feature will be a documentary, 3rd Ave. El.

Three weeks later, October 25, The Marriage of Figaro, with German dialogue and English titles, will be presented. Featured singers include Erna Berger, Tiana Lemintz, and a cast of distinguished German actors. Figaro is being presented in cooperation with the German department of Wayne University.

On November 8, a French production, Diary of a Country Priest will be shown. Featuring Claude Laydu and Nicole Maury, the film is a drama of faith rather than religion. This is the first showing in Detroit.

"The most forbidding land on Earth," the desolate Birdsville Track of Australia will be the background for the December 6 program, The Back of Beyond. It is a documentary film produced by Shell of Australia. The Sex Life of the Polyp, Robert Benchley's famous dissertation will also be featured.

On December 30, Seal Island and Beaver Valley will be offered to young people at a special 2 p.m. matinee. These are the first two of Walt Disney's true-life adventure series which revolutionized the techniques of camera reporting of animals about their daily business.

The final presentation of the first half of the season will take place January 10. Three documentaries will be exhibited. They include Dance Contest in Esira, The Battle of San Pietro, directed by John Huston, and The Window Cleaner.

Tickets of admission are available, free of charge, at the Publications Desk in the Detroit Museum's main lobby one week prior to the performance date.

The programs will be held Tuesday evenings on the dates previously indicated, in the large auditorium of the Institute of Arts Building.

Many women would be more attractive if they didn't work so hard to make themselves pretty.

Hello

"Don't wait for introductions. As a student of the University you have a right to address other students without any specific introduction."

These words, quoted from the student handbook, reflect the friendly spirit with which new students are welcomed to the University. They are also a reflection of the sincere efforts of the administration to create the friendliest atmosphere possible for new people in a new situation.

This is not a distinguishable bond, but more of a mutual realization that a common goal exists among students on campus.

No matter what the curriculum or the college in which one may be, every student is on common ground, a plot of social real estate on which to build friendships.

As weeks stretch into semesters, and semesters into years, strong and lasting ties are made which will prove valuable and memorable in the years to come.

This is the motive behind those words. Around them a social education is built; an education which is an integral part of any college career.

HARD WORK PAYS

League Earns New Recognition

"Where There's a Will There's a Way" was a winning campaign slogan in the Women's League elections last spring. Since taking over as League president, Willie Cavanaugh has directed her efforts to finding that way.

Working in co-operation with her 12-member League Board and the Student Union, Miss Cavanaugh already has seen much of her work rewarded.

New students were the first to receive the benefit of League action. Among its functions for freshmen, the League produced the Welcome Tea, a party for out-of-towners, and a "What's My Line?" panel at the Freshmen Coed Assembly.

The first issue of League Lites has been published, with Barbara Unti as its new editor.

CHAIRMEN have been appointed and work has begun on League activities for the fall semester. Kay Lyons has been named chairman of the Homecoming float. Joan Brennan will head the committee for the Sadie Shuffle.

Among new features begun this season by the League are sponsorship of a candidate for Homecoming Queen and a spring picnic planned for next semester.

According to Miss Cavanaugh, "Few people realize the extent of League activity on campus. People tend to take things for granted and never fully appreciate the amount of work put into each event sponsored by the League."

SHE SAID the League is designed "to insure adequate recognition and representation of all coeds on campus."

As a step in this direction, Miss Cavanaugh said she and her committee chairman try to choose workers representing a cross-section of all coed groups on campus. She added that many unfamiliar names will appear on committees this year.

"I believe the Women's League has done a tremendous job in the past," said Miss Cavanaugh, "and we hope to equal, if not exceed, its efforts in the coming year."

Sodality Hosts C. A. Speaker Monday Night

"Opportunities in Communication Arts" will be discussed by Miss Julia Hanna, communication arts instructor, at 7:30 p.m., Monday in S-116.

Miss Hanna will stress the importance of communication arts in general and explain how Catholic students can be an influence in various fields after graduation. An open forum will follow.

This is the second speech in a weekly series sponsored by the University of Detroit Sodality for all students.

Coeds Offered Phys. Ed. Course

For the first time in history, the University is providing their coeds with a physical education course, a new step in the education of the female students.

Instruction in tennis, badminton and volleyball are included in this one credit course. Three sections, which meet twice weekly, include ten coeds each.

Steps are being taken to provide a Physical Education major for coeds by 1960.

"We will develop it according to the coeds' interest and if it develops adequately we will enlarge the program yearly," stated Pat Cavanaugh, chairman of the Physical Education department.

The first coed entered the University in 1916 but it was during the World War II that the female enrollment increased to a remarkable degree.

CAMPUS PAGE

Titans Bob Chendes and Al Baumgart look on as Stan Barinicki autographs the prize football for Frolic co-chairman Carol Sabo.

Social Season to Open With 'Football Frolic'

Marv Howell and his Continentals will provide music Saturday night for the official opening of the campus social season at the Football Frolic.

Sponsored by Phi Gamma Nu and Delta Sigma Pi, the Frolic is the first major informal dance of the fall semester.

The affair will begin at 9 p.m. in Knights of Columbus Hall 305, Woodward near Forest.

This year's frolic will introduce the Continentals, a 12-piece band from Michigan State University. Pat Green will be the featured vocalist.

The 1955 Titan football team will be presented during the intermission program.

At this time a football autographed by members of the team will be given to the holder of the winning ticket stub drawn at the dance.

Pre-sale tickets are $2.75. They can be purchased in the Dean of Men's office, the Commerce corridor, at a booth in front of the Chemistry Building or from members of Phi Gamma Nu and Delta Sigma Pi.

Tickets will also be sold at the door. The price will then be raised to $3.00 a couple.

Union to Sponsor After-Game Dance

The Student Union will sponsor a dance following the University-Wichita game Friday.

It will be held in the Memorial Building and will feature the music of the Collegians.

Bob Wiseman, dance chairman, said pre-sale tickets may be bought for 75 cents in the Student Union or the Annex. Door sales will be $1.

Vogue Contest

Senior coeds have until October 15 to enter Vogue Magazine's Prix de Paris Contest. First prize in the contest is $1,000 in cash or 2 weeks in Paris.

U-D Opens 'Valley' Play

VARSIITY SPORTS

UNDEFEATED

U-D has had only three undefeated football teams. The first was in 1898 with a 5-0 record. The second in 1910 with a 3-0 record. The last was the great 1928 club coached by Gus Dorais with a 9-0 record.

WANTED

Experienced cheerleaders are needed to fill out the U-D cheerleading squad. There are seven men on the squad now and they need three men to have a full squad. Anyone interested should contact Dave Ewald, Holden Hall.

The Birdie Says...

Chirp Chirp Chirp . . . Well here I am again and this season really looks as if we are going to have fun. Last season my average was a smooth but not too impressive .720. Here we go again . . . see if you can top my picks.

Army 42, Penn State 7	No one is going to stop the Knights!
Michigan 21, Michigan State 20	Planutis misses another extra point.
Notre Dame 35, Indiana 14	Irish line is weak????
UCLA 21, Washington State 7	Sanders has no worry this week.
Ohio State 14, Stanford 13	Hopalong will decide the issue.
Maryland 24, Baylor 14	Terps will have to go hard.
Miami, Ohio 32, Xavier 12	Playing in wrong league.
COP 7, Cincinnati 6	Upset of the week.
Texas A&M 21, Houston 13	Valley teams haven't got the power.
Georgia Tech 14, SMU 12	Jackets might win provided SMU aerials.
Toledo 21, Ohio U. 6	Win over Detroit wasn't a fluke.
Tulane 35, Northwestern 17	Wildcats are out of it.
Bowling Green 26, Western Michigan 13	Hard fighting in the MAC.
Yale 24, Brown 12	Ivy league can go any way but we like Bulldogs.
Slippery Rock 7, Edinboro 7	A small college tie.

Oppose Wichita, 1954 Champions

By JOHN BUCKLEY
Sports Editor

The Titans open their Missouri Valley Conference competition tonight against the Wichita "Wheat-shockers," 1954 MVC champion.

Coach Wally Fromhart is concerned about the availability of star left end Perry Richards. Richards is suffering from a severe cold.

RICHARDS accounted for the only Detroit touchdown last weekend. Of the four passes completed in the game he was on the receiving end of three.

If he is unable to get the medical OK to play, his starting berth probably will go to Dave Dahlkemper, a lanky, eager but inexperienced end from Erie, Pa.

In two games this year Wichita has tied Arizona State 20-20 and blanked Utah State 19-0.

LAST SEASON the "Shockers" were undefeated in MVC play and had a 9-1 record for the season.

This year the high-powered Wichita attack is led by All-Conference halfback Jim Klisanin, who averaged more than seven yards per try in 1954, and another All-Conference choice, Jack Conway, at the split-T's important quarterback slot.

The Titans will be missing one if not two regular starters besides Richards tonight. When practice opened, Jim Lynch and George Finn were slated to take over as the starting halfbacks. Then Lynch suffered a back injury, and Finn came up with a disabled knee.

AS A RESULT, Lynch carried the ball only once in the Toledo game and Finn hasn't seen action—and won't for at least another week.

Around the MVC

Changes in the coaching staffs of all Missouri Valley teams but Detroit insure fans new strategy this year.

Tulsa surprised new coach Bobby Dodds and most of the experts by trouncing Hardin-Simmons Saturday, 41-9. Wichita, which opened its season by tying Arizona Tempe, shut out Utah State, 19-0.

Oklahoma A&M fell to Arkansas defending Southwest conference champs while Houston was idle following its 52-14 rout of Montana a week ago.

U. of D.'s coaching will have a chance to scout two opponents at one game this weekend when Tulsa and Marquette meet in Milwaukee.

OOPS!

In the Tuesday issue there was a mistake as to the dates of the 14th annual William Kelly Joyce golf tournament. The semi-final rounds of play will be on Oct. 12-13-14.

DeLano Replaces Mittan As Sports Publicity Head

Fred DeLano has been appointed to succeed Ray Mittan as sports publicity director of the University, effective Oct. 1.

DeLano, who recently opened his own publicity and public relations firm in Detroit, has had nine years of experience as a football press agent in the Big Ten and National Football League.

HE ALSO has served as a sports writer on the Chicago Tribune and Long Beach, Cal. Press Telegraph, where he was elected president of the Southern California Football Writers Association in 1951.

DeLano handled University of Michigan sports publicity from 1940 through 1943, was press agent for the Detroit Lions from 1944 through 1947 and served as associate publicity director of the Los Angeles Rams in 1948.

He spent the next four years as a featured columnist in Long Beach, Cal., and then returned to the free lance publicity front on the west coast. His chief activity then was as world-wide publicity director of the Miss Universe Beauty Pageant.

AMONG the grid greats whose national popularity has benefitted from DeLano's press agency have been such collegiate and pro stars as Tom Harmon, Forest Evashevski, Bob Westfall, Al Wistert, Elroy Hirsch, Frank Sinkwich, Bill Dudley, and Bob Waterfield.

FRED DeLANO

Ray Mittan, who took over the job in June, gave up a sportscasting job in Benton Harbor for WHFB-FM.

Mittan was offered a good radio job which he stated he was unable to turn down.

Let's Look at the Titans

The next two Titans that we are going to meet are center Al Baumgart and end Perry Richards. Both are hometown boys.

Al Baumgart, 22, is a senior majoring in General Business. In 1953 for the Titans he was the first sophomore ever to be named to the All-Valley team. He prepped at St. Joseph's.

Al not only keeps himself busy with football but also plays for the Titan baseball team as a catcher and a right fielder.

Al is also a member of the AFROTC and he bowls for the Titan keglers. He stands 6:00 and weighs 195.

Perry Richards, 20, the other Detroit boy, prepped at St. Rita's. Perry, a junior, is majoring in General Business also. Perry has proved to Titan fans and coaches alike last season why he was rated as one of the top prospects of the Frosh squad.

He is very fast and able to snag anything within his reach. Perry played in all nine games last season and performed equally well in every tilt. He stands 6:03 and weighs 195.

His statistical record for 1954 reads: 13 passes caught, 164 yds. He had no touchdowns last year but started this year with one in the first game.

Both Richards and Baumgart have been strong pre-season choices for All-Missouri Valley honors. Baumgart was selected to the 1953 All MVC team.

Notices

Anyone interested in playing baseball for U-D in the spring must turn out for the fall practice. Lloyd Brazil, head baseball coach, stated that he won't accept anyone in the spring who failed to turn out for the fall sessions.

This refers to men who are trying to make the team for the first time.

All entries for intramural touchball competition must be in today before 5 p.m. The entry fees must be in at this time also.

There will be a meeting for all the touchball managers on Monday at 3:30 in the intramural office. The games are to begin on Tuesday.

There will be a meeting on Friday, Sept. 30, at 3 p.m. for all those interested in the fall tennis tournament.

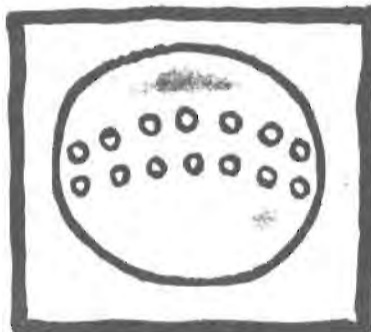

Everyone, except varsity team members, is eligible. The meeting will be held in the intramural office, room 56 of the Memorial Building.

Hundreds and hundreds of students earned $25 in Lucky Strike's Drooodle drive last year—and they'll tell you it's the easiest money yet.

Droodles are a snap to do—just look at the samples here. Drooodle anything you want. Drooodle as many as you want. If we select your Drooodle, we'll pay $25 for the right to use it, with your name, in our advertising. And we always end up paying for plenty we don't use!

Send your Drooodle, complete with title, to Lucky Drooodle, P. O. Box 67A, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Include your name, address, college and class. Please include, too, the name and address of the dealer in your college town from whom you buy cigarettes most often.

While you drooodle, light up a Lucky, the cigarette that tastes better because it's made of fine tobacco . . . and "It's Toasted" to taste better.
