“ I have used reference database software for many years. RefWorks is the most intuitive and least problematic of any software that I have used. It permits me to capture the reference information for the online resources more effectively than other tools. I am also impressed by the responsiveness of the RefWorks development team. Personally, I have found RefWorks invaluable!”

— Jeff Olsen, Associate Vice President of Online Learning & Services
Director of Library and Information Sciences
St. John's University

The screenshot shows the RefWorks website interface. At the top is a blue header with the RefWorks logo and navigation links: About RefWorks, Administrator, Other Products, Contact Us, and Help. Below the header is a navigation bar with the text "Login to Flow". The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column contains a login form with the following elements: a link "New to RefWorks?", a red circle around the link "Sign Up for a New Account", a section titled "Login using RefWorks Credentials" with input fields for "Login Name" and "Password", a checkbox for "Keep my session open for 14 days", a "Login" button, a link "Forgot Your Login Information?", and a section titled "Login using Other Credentials" with links for "RefWorks Canada (Scholars Portal)", "Open Athens Credentials", and "My Institution's Credentials (Shibboleth)". Below the form is a link "RefWorks Terms and Conditions". The right column contains several informational links: "Want to learn how to get the most out of RefWorks?", "Check out our great series of videos...", "Revise & Resubmit", "Learn about Flow, the latest creation from the RefWorks team.", and "Ready to take your research to the next level? Try Flow..."
